SAZAEYC Update

May 2022

It is with bittersweetness that I am writing to our Southern Arizona Association for the Education of Young Children community to let you know that I have resigned in my role as president. I recently took on a new role in our early childhood community as the Pima North Regional Director for First Things First. Due to the nature of this role and the relationship with SAZAEYC there are many conflicts of interest in my particular role as president. Additionally, these are two large leadership roles within our community and I would like to open the door for a new leader.

Although my time in this role has been brief, I have enjoyed working with the incredible early childhood professionals on the current board. I plan to continue to volunteer as a non-elected, non-voting member to support the upcoming conference and help the new president transition into their role. You are in great hands with the leadership who has stepped up to the plate.

Thank you for your trust as your President-Elect and President. Being a part of the early childhood community in Southern Arizona is one of my greatest honors. I look forward to working with everyone in this new capacity.

With Gratitude,
